

Combining the right landscape elements with the right mix of feeders, shelter, and water sources will ensure a diverse suite of birds find what they need to call a backyard home. The scene depicted here ensures abundant natural food and shelter sources are available from native plants and natural water features in a layered fashion around the perimeter of the yard. Feeders and artificial watering sources are also provided in safe places with seasonally appropriate food sources."

- | | | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------|----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Trumpet vine | 7. Red-osier dogwood | 13. Brush pile | 19. Hawthorn |
| 2. Maidenhair fern | 8. Thistle feeder | 14. Dead tree (snag) | 20. Chokecherry |
| 3. Aquatic plants | 9. Native bunch grasses | 15. Apple tree | 21. Bird bath |
| 4. Backyard pond | 10. Oak tree | 16. Platform feeder | 22. Pollinator garden |
| 5. Low conifers | 11. Bird house | 17. Tube feeder | 23. Arborvitae |
| 6. White pine | 12. Hopper feeder | 18. Elderberry | 24. Suet feeder |