

Loess Hills Fall Forestry Day 2021

October 26th, 2021
Loess Hills State Forest

An excellent opportunity to network with forestry and natural resource professionals!

No registration required. Drinks and light snacks will be provided.

This event will require light hiking, but motorized transport assistance will be available if desired.

Event Agenda

- 12:00 - 12:15 p.m. *Welcome, Brief History of Loess Hills State Forest
- 12:30 - 1:00 p.m. *Site 1, Oak Regeneration: Learn "How to identify opportunities"
- 1:10 - 2:00 p.m. *Site 2, Oak Regeneration: Learn "What it takes to achieve"
- 2:15 - 2:45 p.m. *Site 3, Learn Tree of Heaven ID, physiology, and control
- 2:45 - 3:15 p.m. *Site 4, Learn "Hack-n-Squirt" herbicide application, view results
- 3:15 - 3:30 p.m. *Wrap Up

Event Speakers:

Sarah Rueger, District Forester, IDNR.
Jeff Seago, Area Forester, IDNR, Loess State Forest.
Billy Beck, Extension Forestry Specialist, ISUEO.

For other forestry day events, please visit naturalresources.extension.iastate.edu/events/list?tid=602.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY™
Extension and Outreach

Location Directions:

The latitude and longitude coordinates for the meeting spot are 41°49'20.3"N 95°54'51.5"W (41.822315, -95.914307).

To reach the destination, take IA-183 to 1st Street, turn onto E Main Street and stay on it as it turns into the Easton Trail, and then follow it to the meeting spot.

